The Star and Sentinel.

OCTOBER.

Upon the brown and far off hills
The haze lies soft and blue,
Where nuts are dropping thick and fast,
Where Summer wild flowers grew.

The Maple's gold and crimson leaves
Like blood-stained banners gleam,—
And purple asters ope their bloom
Beside each forest stream.

The woods like some grand temple stand
Beneath the glowing skies,
While down the long dim aisles the haze
Like slumb'ring incense lies.

No organ's deep, majestic notes
Come peeling on the air—
No choral strain triumphant flies
Along those arches fair.

No voice is heard—no sound, save but
The brooklet's rip'ling flow,
Or whistling quail in covert thick,
Where scarlet berries grow.

Perchance some frightened rabbit's tread
May wake an echo there,
Or drowsy hum of honey bee
Fall on the dreamy air.

The sunflower and the golden rod
Their gaudy hues unfold,
And seem as if some Midas touch
Had changed them into gold.

The grapes in purple clusters hang
Upon the clinging vine,
And in the orchard, 'mid the leaves,
The ruby apples shine.

But through the forests, o'er the hill,
A voice comes whispering low—
It murmurs of the wintry winds
And of the falling snow.

The crimsoned leaves to earth must fall,
And breezes o'er them sigh—
Oh! sad it seems that aught so fair
Should ever fade or die.

We read on every falling leaf
This lesson most sublime,
That Resurrection's holy power
Shall triumph over time.

For though the summer flowers may fade,
The spring with sun and rain
Shall call them from the vale
To bud and bloom again.

SPEAK KINDLY.

Much of the unhappiness in this world arises from giving utterence to hasty, unkind words. Many a sorrowful hour and sleepless night have been spent brooding o'er some harsh or angry word, which has dropped from the lips, in a moment of unguarded passion. How much pain we would save ourselves and others, if we would guard all our ways and actions.—Kind words, spoken in the right time and place, do more to heal the wounded spirit than all the gold which this world can give.—They cost nothing while they enrich the heart and scatter sunshine all around, winning many true and faithful friends.

"A little word in kindness spoken,
A smile, perhaps a tear,
Has often healed a heart that's broken,
And made a friend sincere."

How indelibly does a little act of kindness, performed at the right moment, impress itself upon the mind.

Many years ago a little child stopped to admire the flowers in a beautiful garden. It was an orphan, and already had felt the hand and bitter pangs of an orphan's lot. The owner of the garden noticed the child and spoke kindly to him.

"Do you love flowers?" said he.

"Oh, yes. We used to have beautiful flowers in our garden."

The man gathered some and handed them to the boy, saying as he did so, "here is a nice little bunch for you." The child took the flowers in a manner that plainly told his gratitude. It was an act of spontaneous kindness, and scarcely thought of again. Years went by, and through toil and poverty the child grew to manhood. It is said from ordeals like this sometimes come our best men. So it proved in the case of this orphan. We now find him respected and beloved by all that know him. Through all these years he has never forgotten the man who so long ago spoke that kind word. When he again met him it was not in the beautiful garden, cultivating the fragrant flowers, but in the cold and dismal abode of poverty. Then his was the hand streched forth to help the white haired old man in his hour of need. Thus the little act of kindness was doubly repaid, bringing to our mind the words of the beautiful hymn: "Kind words can never die."

THE BABY.—Who knows not the beautiful group of babe and mother sacred in nature, now sacred also in religious associations of half the globe? Welcome to the parents is the puny struggler, strong in his weakness, his little arms more irresistible than the soldier's, his lips touched with persuasion which Chatham and Pericles in manhood had not.—The small despot asks so little that all nature and reason are on his side. His ignorance is more charming than all knowlecge, and his little sins more bewitching than any virtue.—All day, between his three or four sleeps, he coos like a pigeon house, sputters and spurns, and puts on his faces of importance; and when he fasts, the little Pharisee fails not to sound his trumpet before him. Out of blocks, thread-spools, cards, and checkers, he will build his pyramid with the gravity of Palladio. With an accoustic apparatus of whistle and rattle he explores the laws of sound.—But chiefly, like his senior countryman, the young American studies new and speedier modes of transportation. Mistrusting the cunning of his small legs, he wishes to ride on the necks and shoulders of all flesh. The small enchanter nothing can withstand—no seniority of age, no gravity of character; uncles, aunts, cousins, grandsires, granddames—all fall an easy prey; he conforms to nobody, all conform to him; all caper and make mouths, and babble and chirrup to him. On the strongest shoulders he rides, and pulls the hair of laureled heads.—R. S. Emerson.

DANIEL WEBSTER once paid the following beautiful tribute to woman: "May it please your honors, there is nothing upon this earth that can compare with the faithful attachment of a wife; no creature who for the object of her love is so indomitable, so persevering, so ready to suffer and to die. Under the most depressing circumstances, woman's weakness becomes mighty power, her timidity becomes fearless courage, all her shrinking and sinking pass away, and her spirit acquires the firmness of marble—adamantine firmness—when circumstances drive her to put forth all her energies under the inspiration of her affections."

BASE BALL.—The Titusville Herald says: Base ball is raging fearfully throughout the oil region, sparing neither age nor condition. We eat base ball, talk it, and act it. The other night one of the deacons of a church in Franklin, winding up a petition to the Throne of Grace, said: "Oh, Lord, as we start for a home run to Glory, don't let us by the devil be caught on the fly!"

GIRARD COLLEGE.

This institution, named for its founder, Stephen Girard, and standing prominent among the places of interest to the stranger who visits Philadelphia, is situated in the northwestern part of the city. The college grounds, forty-five acres in extent, are entirely surrounded by a wall ten feet high and sixteen inches thick, the entire length being more than one and a quarter miles.

The marble buildings, erected at a cost of nearly $2,000,000, present an imposing appearance. The main building is in the form of a Greek Temple. The cella or body is 111 feet wide and 169 feet long, and is surrounded by a wide peristyle or porch which is reached from the ground by eleven steps extending entirely around it. Upon the peristyle rest thirty-four columns each fifty-five feet in height and six feet in diameter. The ceiling of the peristyle is of cast iron and painted in imitation of marble. Not only are the walls and columns of marble, but likewise the floors, stairways and roof.

From the top of the building a magnificent view meets the eye. On the east rolls the Delaware, on the west you catch occasional glimpses of the Schuylkill, and south of you can be seen the great body of the city with its busy, thronging masses of humanity.

There are four out-buildings, each fifty-two by one hundred and twenty-five feet, where the officers and pupils reside. Two of these are east and two west of the main building and ranging with it, the nearest being at a distance of 140 feet. These are also composed of marble.

Stephen Girard died in 1831, worth $7,500,000, having given in his will minute directions for the erection and regulation of the college. On January 1st, 1848 the institution was opened and one hundred orphans admitted.—Three hundred is the total number accommodated, and as fast as vacancies occur they are filled. In accordance with the requirements of the will none are admitted except white male orphans between the ages of six and ten years, preference being given to those of Philadelphia. The pupils are fed, clothed and educated entirely by the institution, and may remain until they arrive at ages between fourteen and eighteen years, at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

The extensive grounds are beautifully laid out in drives and walks, and planted with trees and shrubbery. A large space is devoted exclusively to play grounds, where there are extensive preparations for games and gymnastic exercises, and at the western end of the estate a pond has been made where the healthful exercise of swimming may be enjoyed at suitable seasons.

The entire arrangements of the college seem to be most complete, and so far as a visitor is capable of judging, order and neatness reign triumphant. From the time of rising to that of retiring every half hour has its special occupation. Upon suitable occasions the orphans are taken to visit places of interest, but these grounds and buildings, for their term of education, may be considered their world. The massive iron gates on the north and south sides of the enclosure are kept locked, so that there is neither ingress or egress except by permission of the gentleman who keeps the gate house.

As the visitor leaves this beautiful home for the fatherless sons of our State, he cannot but admire the man, and feel a sense of gratitude towards one who has given so liberally of his self-earned wealth for so many noble purposes. Many have endowed colleges and institutions where the favored sons of fortune may receive superior advantages of education, but Stephen Girard's first thought was for the penniless orphans thrown, like himself, upon the cold charity of the world without the means of obtaining an education, and exposed to such numerous temptations to vice and immorality. Already there must be thousands who bless the name of him who furnished the means to enable them, if so disposed when they leave college, to become useful members of society and an honor to our Commonwealth.

LILLIE LAKE.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14, 1867.

PLUMP WOMEN.—The N. Y. Gazette thus concludes a plea for "plump women": But whatever education our girls have, let us have less of it. American girls are notorious for their pallor and frailty and tendency to wither and lose their charms at an early age. This country has no greater want at the present time than plump girls and plump women. Let us have them plump and healthy, whether they know anything or not. We can teach their children what they don't know if necessary; by all means let us have rosy, blooming, solid women. The Pacific railroad is not half so important to the prosperity of this country as the aggregate avoirdupois of its women.—The female sex of America ought to weigh at least half as much again as it does.

"WHAT studies do you intend to pursue?" said an erudite pedagogue one day as Sammy Raw entered his school room.

"Why, I shall study reading, I suppose, wouldn't ye?"

"Yes, but you will not want to read all the time; are you acquainted with figures?"

"It's a pity if I ain't when I've ciphered clean through adoption."

"Adoption! what rule is that?"

"Why, it's the double rule of two; you know that twice two is four; in according to adoption twice four is two."

"You may take your seat, sir," said the master.

"You may take your toon," said the pupil, "for it's a poor rule that won't work both ways."

THE OTHER SIDE.—Once in a happy home, a sweet, bright baby died. On the evening of the day when the children gathered round their mother, all sitting very sorrowful, Alice, the eldest, said:

"Mother, you took all the care of baby while she was here, and you carried and held her in your arms all the while she was ill; now, mother, who took her on the other side?"

"On the other side of what, Alice?"

"On the other side of death; who took the baby on the other side, mother; she was so little she could not go alone?"

"Jesus met her there," answered the mother. "It is He who took little children into His arms to bless them, and said, "Suffer them to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven!"

A COOP STORY is told of a fellow at a cattle show who was making himself ridiculously conspicuous by an evident intention of finding fault with everything. At last he burst forth with:

"Call these here prize cattle? Why, they ain't nothing to what our folks raised. My father raised the biggest calf of any man round our parts!"

"I don't doubt it," was the timely remark of a bystander; "and the noisest."

The Richard points, as may well be supposed, triumphantly vindicated.

INDOLENCE.

Idleness is a criminal prodigality, because it wantonly wastes time, causes unnecessary labor to industrious persons, and is the prolific author of want and shame. An idle man is a blank in society, and lives—contrary to all the laws of nature and civilization—for no definite purpose. Creative wisdom designed man for virtuous action, but indolence robs the creature of happiness by a violation of this design while he exists upon this globe; and may endanger it in another state after death. The Turks have a true proverb which is, "the devil tempts all other men, but the idle man tempts the devil."

While a man remains inert, he commits no evident evil, nor does he any actual good, but his soul cannot rest thus quietly; it naturally engenders evil, and this ultimately rouses him to action—for "Satan always finds some mischief still, for idle hands to do."

Naturally we are not perfect, but have the power of improvement, by which means we may make ourselves "wise unto salvation." Manual labor is an invigorator of both body and mind. It promotes health, and increases virtue, by occupying time which might be wickedly wasted. If the mind be not stored with useful knowledge it will be filled with nonsense.

The Roman emperor, Titus, who conquered Jerusalem, and was considered such a tyrant, on account of his merciless butchery of the prisoners, became a converted man before death, and for every day in which some good act was not performed by him, he exclaimed, "I have lost a day." If we resolved to do as he did, how much more precious time would be saved, and how much better an account would we have to give to that Eternal Judge, who will summon the world at the last day to account for the "deeds done in the body."

"Who's born for sloth? To some we find
The ploughshare's annual toil assigned;
Some at the sounding anvil glow,
Some the swift shining shuttle throw;
Some, studious of the wind and tide,
From pole to pole our commerce guide;
While some, of genius more refined,
With head and tongue assist mankind.
In every rank, or great or small,
'Tis industry supports us all."

SUMMER HAS LEFT US.

Yes, summer has left us, but she gave us a warm kiss at parting, and her hot breath still glows upon our cheeks. Already the returning wave of travel begins to be felt, and it will soon bear back upon its crest the seekers after health or pleasure, who left us for a time. The arteries of trade begin to swell and throb with new life, and all the busy excitements of a city existence will soon be renewed with even more than their wonted fervor. Business and fashion, trade and dissipation, will alike claim their votaries and their vict

THE VOTE IN THE STATE.

The official vote on Supreme Judge, has been ascertained, and Judge SHARSWOOD's majority is 922 votes.

The whole vote of the State is 534,570, being 62,800 less than the vote of last year. The Republican vote is short 40,450; the "Democratic," 23,350.

The falling off in Crawford and Erie counties alone, is 3,000 votes, chiefly caused by disaffection on local tickets. In Allegheny, there were 4,000 Republicans not at the polls; in Lancaster 1,800; in Philadelphia 5,000; in Venango 1,400; in York 1,000, and so on. Generally, the Republican vote in the "Democratic" counties was more fully polled than in our strongholds. Of these, Somerset was among the best organized. Its 1,215 majority astounded the Cops of Bedford and Fulton, and carried the Legislative district ticket by a handsome majority.

The apathy among Republicans was largely the result of a conviction that their votes were not necessary; and is not the result of a change of opinion. But it was aggravated, in localities, by injudicious nominations, which were forced upon the party.

On the whole, the returns indicate no diminution in the Republican strength, no weariness of the Republican principle; and therefore, should produce no discouragement. Pennsylvania is manifestly a Republican State. This election establishes it, if it was ever doubtful; for with every incidental issue against us and with considerable factional division among us, with an illegal "deserter" vote polled solidly against us, and with a large illegal vote in Philadelphia, Luzerne and other counties, the "Democratic" majority is merely nominal. We will sweep it away next year easily, and pile 20,000 Republican majority on top, and not greatly exert ourselves.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The Republicans have a majority in each branch of the Legislature, and are likely to retain it, for many years.

For Speaker of the House, two persons are chiefly named, ELISHA W. DAVIS of Philadelphia, and THOMAS MCCAMANT of Blair. Both are old members. The former was Speaker some years ago, when a member from Venango. For Clerk, in place of Mr. BENEDICT, deceased, Gen. A. L. RUSSELL, of Allegheny, late Adjutant General, J. R. MCAFEE of Westmoreland, (late Assistant Clerk), Capt. E. H. RAUCH of Berks, (formerly Clerk), and Gen. J. L. SELFRIDGE of Northampton, are prominently named as candidates.

The State Treasurership excites some interest, as the present efficient officer, WILLIAM H. KEMBLE, of Philadelphia, is not a candidate for re-election. Senator GEORGE CONNELL, of Philadelphia, Gen. WILLIAM W. IRWIN of Beaver, late Commissary General of the State, and GORDON F. MASON of Bradford, are prominently named. Mr. MASON was a Senator some years ago. We have no means of judging the relative strength of each.

P. S. JOHN HICKMAN of Chester, is also named for Speaker. He was formerly an eminent Representative in Congress.

THE New York World predicts that one result of the recent elections in Ohio and Pennsylvania, will be to cause the white citizens of the South to stand resolutely aloof from all participation in reconstruction under Congressional legislation.

The World's wish is father to the thought. It forgets that a fair proportion of the best and ablest whites of the South are Republicans, and that the number of these sensible men is daily increasing. These elections will but stimulate them to greater effort, that Reconstruction and Restoration may not be blighted by "Democratic" malignity and hate. Those whites who refuse to help in reconstruction, will illustrate the old saying of "fools biting off their noses to spite their faces."

THE Democrats of the Judicial District composed of Anne Arundel, Howard and Carroll counties, Md., have nominated OLIVER MILLER of Anne Arundel for Chief Justice, and EDWARD HAMMOND of Howard and WILLIAM M. HAYDEN of Carroll for Associate Justices. MILLER was Speaker of the late House of Delegates, is a native of Massachusetts, and a violent Secessionist. HAMMOND is an "Old Hunker" Democrat, and was of course a Rebel sympathizer. HAYDEN was so open a Rebel that he was included within the disfranchising clauses of the Maryland Constitution of 1864.—Their abrogation, by the adoption of the new Constitution, has restored him to the franchise, and forthwith he is to be made a judge! So it pays in Maryland, to have been against the country during the War.

WE have lost both the Representatives in the Franklin and Perry district. Perry gave a larger Republican majority than usual, but the Cops had the run in Franklin and overbalanced it. We deeply regret the defeat of Col. THEO. MCGOWAN, who was a gallant officer in the war, and is a most estimable and honorable man. He has a high order of ability, the firmest principles, and an education which fits him for public life. He would have adorned the position, and done honor to the district, a majority of whose voters were unable to appreciate his merits or understand his qualifications. This verdict will one day be reversed, and the State will yet have the benefit of his talents and labors. He knows "how to labor and to wait."

IN 1862, the majority at the polls revolted at Emancipation. In 1868, they accepted it gladly.

IN 1867, they are thought by many to have revolted at Reconstruction on the basis of Manhood Suffrage. In 1868, they will admit that this policy saved the nation from untold evils.

"BRAZENNOSE" hope the elections may delay Reconstruction, and the restoration of the Rebel States. Why? Because they are opposed to any reconstruction which does not restore the Rebels to power, and that they will never have.

ELECTION FRAUDS AND CONTESTS.

The Democracy were guilty of more than their usual number of frauds at the late election, and practised them all over the State. In this County, they voted deserters whom a State law explicitly disfranchises, and did it with a spirit of defiance. We have also heard of some minors whose votes were received on the false and unsupported oath of the parties themselves.

In one of the "Democratic" wards of Scranton, Luzerne county, the polls were not opened until four o'clock in the afternoon; and "Democratic" rowdies then drove all Republicans from the polls! In the North District of Wilkesbarre township, no Republican was allowed to vote, while Democrats are known to have voted over and over again. The same thing was done in other parts of Luzerne county. If there were any justice to be had for violation of the election laws by Copperhead scoundrels, every one of them, with the men who connived at the outrage, would be in the Penitentiary before the end of the next Court week. But we know the spirit of Copperhead judges and juries too well to expect that.

In the "Democratic" wards of Philadelphia, BILL MCMULLEN and his band exceeded themselves, having put into the box over 2,350 illegal votes! All of them have been already ascertained; and three of the defeated Republican candidates have taken steps to contest the election before the Courts.

There is no doubt whatever that Judge SHARSWOOD's election is due to ILLEGAL VOTING; and that upon the legal vote cast, Judge WILLIAMS has been chosen Supreme Judge. We believe this will be made apparent, as the facts are developed.

JAMES BUCHANAN received a call from a delegation of the Hibernian Engine Company, of Philadelphia, on Friday last, and made a short speech informally, in which he spoke of himself as the "last of the public men of his time." In this he was not quite accurate. Many of his cotemporaries have died; but others are yet living—among whom we mention Hon. ANDREW STEWART of Uniontown, who is but a year younger than Mr. BUCHANAN; and Hon. JAMES WILSON of this place, who is twelve years his senior, who served with honor in the 18th, 19th, and 20th Congresses, and who was an esteemed associate of CLAY, RANDOLPH, CALHOUN, WEBSTER, SERGEANT, and others like them. He is less known to the public than the "Old Public Functionary," but his name will not be tarnished with the crimes which make BUCHANAN's a synonym for feebleness, treachery, and shame, and his heart was ever faithful to that country to whose service he was frequently pledged in earlier life. Besides these, Hon. THADDEUS STEVENS, Mr. BUCHANAN's representative in Congress, is but one year his junior, is therefore, "of Mr. BUCHANAN's time," and is still left to do brave battle for justice and liberty. As the callers on Mr. BUCHANAN were a lot of Philadelphia Copperheads, it was polite in Mr. BUCHANAN to ignore the distinguished men to whom we have referred; but it is not just to allow his remark to go unchallenged.

IN the 21st Senatorial district, MCINTYRE and SHUGART, "Democrats," have the return as elected to the State Senate; but we understand the election will be contested on the ground of fraud, especially in Juniata and Centre counties. In all of the counties of the district, the votes of "Democratic" deserters were received by "Democratic" election officers, in violation of their oath of office. It is high time, something were done to stop this open and defiant disregard of the law, at the hands of the mouthing hypocrites who boast, when it suits them, of their respect for law.

TWENTY years ago, the Democratic Supreme Judges of Ohio decided that men of mixed blood, in whom the blood of the white race preponderated, are voters under the Constitution of that State.—Most of these men voted the Republican ticket at the late election, and the "Democrats" talk of contesting the election to throw out these votes. So, it appears the decisions of Courts are to be obeyed when they suit the "Democracy," but to be violently and arbitrarily overruled, when they stand in the way of "Democratic" victories.

THE friends of the "Lost Cause" are gloating with joy over the late elections in this State and Ohio. They are welcome to all the good they can extract out of this small check, which will be, in the path of the Republican party, as a fly on a wheel.

They think it is a great affair, and rejoice as genuinely as, though more publicly than, they did over the first defeat of the Union army at Bull Run. That victory did not save the Rebel Confederacy, nor will this the Rebel Democracy.

THE "Democratic" township politicians speculated successfully on the willingness of the "Democratic" voters to come out and vote; and got, we understand, $5 a head for those polled in excess of a small percentage over the vote of 1866. Was there ever so shameless a "bargain and sale?" Yet men who commit such acts, talk of popular corruption as a thing to be regretted! They evidently revel in its filth, and get fat on its vomit.

IT is understood that the name of Hon. M. RUSSELL THAYER will be presented to Gov. GEARY for appointment to the vacancy caused by Judge SHARSWOOD's transfer to the Supreme Bench. Gov. GEARY could not do a more graceful, appropriate, or popular thing than to appoint Mr. THAYER, whose qualifications are of the highest, and whose claims are unquestionable.

THE Republicans of New York are organizing actively for the November election. The State Committee are putting in the field an efficient corps of canvassers, and everything indicates hard, steady work. The contest will be sharp, and the New York Republicans may win their highest laurels in this campaign.

INDIANA, like Iowa, avows her steadfast devotion to Republicanism—the October election showing heavy gains.—Nine out of the eleven Congressional districts went Republican, being a gain of one. The aggregate majority will reach 20,000, against 14,000 last year.

THE Lewisburg Chronicle, long one of the best, has become one of the largest, Republican papers in the State. It has grown to thirty-two columns.

THE PRESIDENCY.

Since the recent elections a strong movement has developed itself in favor of Gen. GRANT as the next Republican candidate for the Presidency. The Maryland State Republican Convention led off by declaring for GRANT and Manhood Suffrage. In Philadelphia, GRANT Clubs are being formed under the leadership of Ex-Gov. POLLOCK, Col. WM. B. MANN, and other active Republicans. A number of leading papers in various parts of the country, including the Galena (Ills.) Gazette—the home of GRANT—have declared for him and hoisted his name at the head of their columns. Under the influence of the temporary check sustained by the Republican party at the recent elections, the country seems to be turning towards the great soldier, who during the war lead our armies to victory—assured that he who saved the nation in 1864, will preserve it from Rebel rule in 1868.

THE defeat in Ohio is a surprise to both parties. The Republicans claimed a majority of 25,000 on Governor, and the Democrats conceded it. Both parties deemed the Constitutional Amendment on Suffrage doubtful. It is voted down by 50,000 majority, and while the Republicans elect their Governor by some 3,000, the Democrats carry the Legislature.—The canvass was active, indeed brilliant, on both sides, and a large vote was out.—The Democrats skilfully used the money and tax questions against the Republicans, and of course played upon whatever of popular prejudice there is against the proposed Manhood Suffrage. The result will be a land-mark in politics, as it signifies something—which cannot be said of the result in Pennsylvania. In Philadelphia, probably a thousand Republicans voted for Judge SHARSWOOD on personal and professional grounds, and the whole campaign was sluggishly conducted on the part of the Republicans, and under a heavy adverse pressure from "side-issues." Besides, factional and personal resentments paralyzed the party in several of our strongest counties. On the naked merits of the two parties, the majority of the people are Republicans still, as they have been for five years.

Speaking of the late election, BEN. WADE bravely says: "Her recent narrow escape will only have the effect to secure her against future accidents. The Republicans of Ohio were never more radical, more confident of their strength, nor more resolutely determined to carry out their principles to a final triumph than now; and if our election could be held over again to-morrow, warned of our danger, we should carry the State by more than 50,000." Senator SHERMAN says: "Gen. Hayes and the whole State ticket are elected by 3,000 majority, which we will make 50,000 next fall with ease. We lost the State in 1862 by 6,000 majority, on the Emancipation Proclamation of Abraham Lincoln. The next year we beat Vallandigham by 104,000 on the same issue."

ONE of the favorite complaints of the Western Democracy is the Senatorial representation of the New England States, which they pronounce unjust, and which they promise to cut down when they can.

On the other hand, Mr. ADAMS, "Democratic" candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, commends the doctrine of State Rights, because it has secured and will retain the Senatorial preponderance of New England in Congress!

Verily, "Democratic" dishonesty and impudence are equal to any and every deception and pretension.

THE rebel element in the South take great comfort out of the result in Ohio and Pennsylvania; and are resisting Reconstruction with "might and main." A few weeks will disclose, with what result. Should the effect be an indefinite postponement of restoration and peace, the Republicans will be in no way responsible.

ITALY pledges herself to enforce the treaty of September.

GEN. GRANT'S POSITION.

At a Republican meeting in Galena, Illinois, on the 5th inst., Congressman E. B. Washburne undertook to define Gen. Grant's position in detail. As Mr. Washburne is an intimate friend of the General's, considerable interest is attached to the statements made, which are, in effect, that Gen. Grant's sympathies are with Congress in its reconstruction measures, and that he had advised an extra session, and had used his influence with Senators to accept the clause in the House bill requiring the assent of the Senate to the removal of district commanders. Favoring the reconstruction acts, every effort of his had been directed to the enforcement of the laws in their letter and spirit, and he had accepted the position of Secretary of War from a stern sense of duty to the country, and to prevent its being filled by a Johnson man. Mr. W. also stated that his acceptance of the position was with the knowledge and consent of Mr. Stanton, after a full consultation and understanding between them. In regard to the General being a candidate for the Presidency, Mr. W. stated that he had no right to speak.

JAY COOKE, Esq., has written a letter in defence of national banking system, explaining its origin and merits, and urging its perpetuation.

ECCLESIASTICAL.—The General Synod of the German Reformed Church is in session at Baltimore, Md. The attendance is large, and the deliberations of the Synod attract much interest, as liturgical and other important questions are to be considered and determined. We notice that on Saturday a committee was appointed to inquire into the character of the Meyerstown Convention, and of the documents presented to the body by said Convention; to ascertain whether it would be proper to receive the aforesaid documents.

ANTI-LITURGICAL.—A Convention of 225 delegates, upwards of 40 of them Ministers, of the German Reformed Church, met at Myerstown, Lebanon county, on the 24th ult., Rev. D. ZIEGLER, of York, presiding. The object of the Convention was to consult in regard to the liturgical movement agitating the German Reformed Church, and to protest at meeting of the Synod in Baltimore against the introduction of the new Liturgy, which, they say, embraces "a doctrine and form of worship entirely foreign to the customs of the Church and the doctrines contained in the Heidelberg Catechism."

☞ Last week we briefly noticed the consecration of the new Lutheran Church, at Littlestown, under the pastoral care of Rev. S. HENRY. A correspondent sends us some additional facts. The building is 85 by 48 feet, with a spire 156 feet high, and has 98 pews—the seating accommodations being about 700. The church was carpeted and furnished by the ladies of the congregation at a cost of about $450. The services were very impressive—an admirably trained choir contributing much to the interest of the occasion. The congregation that has built this handsome and costly edifice certainly deserves much credit.

PRESBYTERIAL.—At the recent meeting of Carlisle Presbytery at Emmitsburg, Revs. JOSEPH A. MURRAY and ISAAC M. PATTERSON, and ruling Elder R. G. MCCREARY were appointed a committee to confer with the churches of Lower Marsh Creek, Great Conowago, Petersburg, and Monaghan (all now vacant), in regard to a re-arrangement of the Pastoral charges composed of said congregations.

The following supplies were appointed for Petersburg Church: Rev. JOSEPH A. MURRAY, third Sabbath in November; Rev. B. M. KERR, third Sabbath in January; Rev. S. B. SWIFT, third Sabbath in March.—Greencastle was chosen as the place for the next stated meeting.

IMPROVEMENTS.—The following buildings heretofore noticed as in process of erection in this place, have recently been completed, viz: By HENRY OVERDEER, a two-story brick dwelling, with attic, on Baltimore st.; Dr. T. T. TATE, a two-story frame dwelling, finished in cottage style, on Chambersburg st.; N. WEAVER, a double two-story frame dwelling, with store room, on same street; GEORGE STALLSMITH, a double two-story frame dwelling, on York street; JAMES PIERCE, a two-story frame dwelling, on Breckinridge street; JAMES WILSON, a frame shop, on West Middle st.; WM. E. BITTLE, a two-story frame backbuilding, on York street; A. R. FEISTER, a two-story frame dwelling, on Breckinridge street.

Mr. JOHN GREBEL has commenced the erection of a three-story brick front Dwelling, next to "Eagle" Hotel, on Chambersburg street, with Store-room—to cost about $4,000. It is 30 feet front by 33 feet 2 inches deep.

Judge ZIEGLER has commenced the erection of a two-story frame Dwelling on East Middle street, adjoining Methodist church.

JOHN HOPKINS is converting his one-story frame Dwelling on Washington street, into a two-story.

JUBILEE.—Both the Lutheran congregations in this place are making arrangements to observe the ecclesiastical year beginning with the 31st of October, as a year of Jubilee, in commemoration of the Reformation inaugurated in 1517 by Luther and the Reformers. Special exercises will be held on Thursday the 31st inst., and be continued at stated intervals during the year. A meeting of the Pastors and members of the two congregations was held on Monday evening in Christ Church, when it was determined to have the morning services on the 31st in St. James' Church, on York street—a joint meeting of the Sabbath Schools in the afternoon in the same church—and the evening exercises in Christ Church, on Chambersburg street. It was also determined to invite other religious denominations to unite in these exercises as commemorative of the great epoch in history which gave to the world an open Bible.

ADVERTISING.—Those who advertise the least complain most of dull business.—The fact is those who advertise catch all the transient business, in addition to that of their regular customers. Those who prosper most in business expend the most in advertising—everybody knows what they have to sell—everybody knows the exact locality of their place of business—and everybody knows they are men of enterprise and deserving of public patronage. Those who desire a good share of business must advertise—there is no other means of obtaining it. Advertisers in the "STAR & SENTINEL" have the advantage of communicating every week with at least 10,000 readers. Those who do not care to increase business, or create new custom—or who are willing to run the risk of losing what they have in competition with more energetic business men—can't of course see the benefit of advertising.

ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that on the 8th inst., Mr. DAVID HEAGY, of this place, while driving a heavily loaded wagon down Bream's hill, on the road leading to Butt's School-house, met with a serious accident. His foot caught in a root, throwing him under the wheel, which passed on his breast, breaking three ribs. Fortunately, the team stopped instantly, or the wheel would have passed over and necessarily crushed his head. In this condition, with the wheel on his breast, a son of FRANCIS BREAM found him, and carefully backing the team, released Mr. HEAGY, who was brought to town, and under the care of Dr. O'NEAL is doing very well.

A NOBLE RESPONSE.—Too much praise cannot be given to the noble response with which the Washington Library Company of Philadelphia are meeting in their patriotic endeavors to raise the required funds for the endowment of the Riverside Institute, a home for the gratuitous education of soldiers' and sailors' orphans. The plan adopted by the company has been subject to careful deliberation, and has received the endorsement of eminent legal authority. The trustees selected to disburse the money thus raised are well-known citizens of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and their names should be a sufficient guarantee to those who would aid in rearing one of the noblest charities that ever thrust itself before the people. Every subscriber to the stock, which costs but one dollar per share, not only receives a fine steel-plate engraving, worth at retail fifty per cent more than what is paid for the stock, but is also guaranteed some present in the great distribution of the $300,000 worth of presents which are to be awarded to the stockholders. The three largest presents are worth $70,000. Each shareholder has an equal chance to obtain one of the largest presents. Every one will obtain some present and a beautiful engraving. A PAYING INVESTMENT.—There are but few ways in which a small outlay of money will bring as sure and satisfactory returns as in the annual subscription to a well conducted, unobjectionable family paper. One of the cheapest, most interesting and valuable weekly journals in this country has been published for nearly nine years in the city of Philadelphia. While its subscription price is so low as to be no obstacle in the way of its introduction, very liberal terms are made with any one who will engage in the work of obtaining new subscribers. A sample copy of the paper, with a prospectus for 1868, and full information in regard to terms of introduction, also a Descriptive List of choice books for presents, will be sent free on application. ANCIENT FINE ARTS.—Respecting the relics of porcelain ware found in the late exhumations at Herculaneum, which have been forwarded to the Society of Antiquities in London, whereof your correspondent says the bottle resembling Drake's Plantation Bitters was undoubtedly placed among the ruins by the agent of Dr. Drake, we desire to state he is incorrect in every respect. If a bottle was found there bearing our lettering, the language of the Ancient Romans was different from the accepted literature of that day.—Our agent has other business than this in Europe, and has not been in Italy at all. No doubt Americans carry Plantation Bitters to Rome; but trying to impose upon a society of Antiquarians in this way, seems quite useless, and we do not appreciate the joke. It is unnecessary for us to spend money in Europe while we are unable to supply the demad for these celebrated Bitters here.

THE VOTE IN THE STATE.

The official vote on Supreme Judge, has been ascertained, and Judge SHARSWOOD's majority is 922 votes.

The whole vote of the State is 534,570, being 62,800 less than the vote of last year. The Republican vote is short 40,450; the "Democratic," 23,350.

The falling off in Crawford and Erie counties alone, is 3,000 votes, chiefly caused by disaffection on local tickets. In Allegheny, there were 4,000 Republicans not at the polls; in Lancaster 1,800; in Philadelphia 5,000; in Venango 1,400; in York 1,000, and so on. Generally, the Republican vote in the "Democratic" counties was more fully polled than in our strongholds. Of these, Somerset was among the best organized. Its 1,215 majority astounded the Cops of Bedford and Fulton, and carried the Legislative district ticket by a handsome majority.

The apathy among Republicans was largely the result of a conviction that their votes were not necessary; and is not the result of a change of opinion. But it was aggravated, in localities, by injudicious nominations, which were forced upon the party.

On the whole, the returns indicate no diminution in the Republican strength, no weariness of the Republican principle; and therefore, should produce no discouragement. Pennsylvania is manifestly a Republican State. This election establishes it, if it was ever doubtful; for with every incidental issue against us and with considerable factional division among us, with an illegal "deserter" vote polled solidly against us, and with a large illegal vote in Philadelphia, Luzerne and other counties, the "Democratic" majority is merely nominal. We will sweep it away next year easily, and pile 20,000 Republican majority on top, and not greatly exert ourselves.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The Republicans have a majority in each branch of the Legislature, and are likely to retain it, for many years.

For Speaker of the House, two persons are chiefly named, ELISHA W. DAVIS of Philadelphia, and THOMAS MCCAMANT of Blair. Both are old members. The former was Speaker some years ago, when a member from Venango. For Clerk, in place of Mr. BENEDICT, deceased, Gen. A. L. RUSSELL, of Allegheny, late Adjutant General, J. R. MCAFEE of Westmoreland, (late Assistant Clerk), Capt. E. H. RAUCH of Berks, (formerly Clerk), and Gen. J. L. SELFRIDGE of Northampton, are prominently named as candidates.

The State Treasurership excites some interest, as the present efficient officer, WILLIAM H. KEMBLE, of Philadelphia, is not a candidate for re-election. Senator GEORGE CONNELL, of Philadelphia, Gen. WILLIAM W. IRWIN of Beaver, late Commissary General of the State, and GORDON F. MASON of Bradford, are prominently named. Mr. MASON was a Senator some years ago. We have no means of judging the relative strength of each.

P. S. JOHN HICKMAN of Chester, is also named for Speaker. He was formerly an eminent Representative in Congress.

THE New York World predicts that one result of the recent elections in Ohio and Pennsylvania, will be to cause the white citizens of the South to stand resolutely aloof from all participation in reconstruction under Congressional legislation.

The World's wish is father to the thought. It forgets that a fair proportion of the best and ablest whites of the South are Republicans, and that the number of these sensible men is daily increasing. These elections will but stimulate them to greater effort, that Reconstruction and Restoration may not be blighted by "Democratic" malignity and hate. Those whites who refuse to help in reconstruction, will illustrate the old saying of "fools biting off their noses to spite their faces."

THE Democrats of the Judicial District composed of Anne Arundel, Howard and Carroll counties, Md., have nominated OLIVER MILLER of Anne Arundel for Chief Justice, and EDWARD HAMMOND of Howard and WILLIAM M. HAYDEN of Carroll for Associate Justices. MILLER was Speaker of the late House of Delegates, is a native of Massachusetts, and a violent Secessionist. HAMMOND is an "Old Hunker" Democrat, and was of course a Rebel sympathizer. HAYDEN was so open a Rebel that he was included within the disfranchising clauses of the Maryland Constitution of 1864.—Their abrogation, by the adoption of the new Constitution, has restored him to the franchise, and forthwith he is to be made a judge! So it pays in Maryland, to have been against the country during the War.

We have lost both the Representatives in the Franklin and Perry district. Perry gave a larger Republican majority than usual, but the Cops. had the run in Franklin and overbalanced it. We deeply regret the defeat of Col. THEO. MCGOWAN, who was a gallant officer in the war, and is a most estimable and honorable man. He has a high order of ability, the firmest principles, and an education which fits him for public life. He would have adorned the position, and done honor to the district, a majority of whose voters were unable to appreciate his merits or understand his qualifications. This verdict will one day be reversed, and the State will yet have the benefit of his talents and labors. He knows "how to labor and to wait."

IN 1862, the majority at the polls revolted at Emancipation. In 1863, they accepted it gladly.

In 1867, they are thought by many to have revolted at Reconstruction on the basis of Manhood Suffrage. In 1868, they will admit that this policy saved the nation from untold evils.

"DEMOCRATS" hope the elections may delay Reconstruction, and the restoration of the Rebel States. Why? Because they are opposed to any reconstruction which does not restore the Rebels to Power, and that they will never have.

ELECTION FRAUDS AND CONTESTS.

The Democracy were guilty of more than their usual number of frauds at the late election, and practised them all over the State. In this County, they voted deserters whom a State law explicitly disfranchises, and did it with a spirit of defiance. We have also heard of some minors whose votes were received on the false and unsupported oath of the parties themselves.

In one of the "Democratic" wards of Scranton, Luzerne county, the polls were not opened until four o'clock in the afternoon; and "Democratic" rowdies then drove all Republicans from the polls! In the North District of Wilkesbarre township, no Republican was allowed to vote, while Democrats are known to have voted over and over again. The same thing was done in other parts of Luzerne county. If there were any justice to be had for violation of the election laws by Copperhead scoundrels, every one of them, with the men who connived at the outrage, would be in the Penitentiary before the end of the next Court week. But we know the spirit of Copperhead judges and juries too well to expect that.

In the "Democratic" wards of Philadelphia, BILL MCMULLEN and his band exceeded themselves, having put into the box over 2,350 illegal votes! All of them have been already ascertained; and three of the defeated Republican candidates have taken steps to contest the election before the Courts.

There is no doubt whatever that Judge SHARSWOOD's election is due to ILLEGAL VOTING; and that upon the legal vote cast, Judge WILLIAMS has been chosen Supreme Judge. We believe this will be made apparent, as the facts are developed.

JAMES BUCHANAN received a call from a delegation of the Hibernian Engine Company, of Philadelphia, on Friday last, and made a short speech informally, in which he spoke of himself as the "last of the public men of his time." In this he was not quite accurate. Many of his cotemporaries have died; but others are yet living—among whom we mention Hon. ANDREW STEWART of Uniontown, who is but a year younger than Mr. BUCHANAN; and Hon. JAMES WILSON of this place, who is twelve years his senior, who served with honor in the 18th, 19th, and 20th Congresses, and who was an esteemed associate of CLAY, RANDOLPH, CALHOUN, WEBSTER, SERGEANT, and others like them. He is less known to the public than the "Old Public Functionary," but his name will not be tarnished with the crimes which make BUCHANAN's a synonym for feebleness, treachery, and shame, and his heart was ever faithful to that country to whose service he was frequently pledged in earlier life. Besides these, Hon. THADDEUS STEVENS, Mr. BUCHANAN's representative in Congress, is but one year his junior, is therefore, "of Mr. BUCHANAN's time," and is still left to do brave battle for justice and liberty. As the callers on Mr. BUCHANAN were a lot of Philadelphia Copperheads, it was polite in Mr. BUCHANAN to ignore the distinguished men to whom we have referred; but it is not just to allow his remark to go unchallenged

IN the 21st Senatorial district, MCINTYRE and SHUGART, "Democrats," have the return as elected to the State Senate; but we understand the election will be contested on the ground of fraud, especially in Juniata and Centre counties. In all of the counties of the district, the votes of "Democratic" deserters were received by "Democratic" election officers, in violation of their oath of office. It is high time, something were done to stop this open and defiant disregard of the law, at the hands of the mouthing hypocrites who boast, when it suits them, of their respect for law.

TWENTY years ago, the Democratic Supreme Judges of Ohio decided that men of mixed blood, in whom the blood of the white race preponderated, are voters under the Constitution of that State.—Most of these men voted the Republican ticket at the late election, and the "Democrats" talk of contesting the election to throw out these votes. So, it appears the decisions of Courts are to be obeyed when they suit the "Democracy," but to be violently and arbitrarily overruled, when they stand in the way of "Democratic" victories.

THE friends of the "Lost Cause" are gloating with joy over the late elections in this State and Ohio. They are welcome to all the good they can extract out of this small check, which will be, in the path of the Republican party, as a fly on a wheel.

They think it is a great affair, and rejoice as genuinely as, though more publicly than, they did over the first defeat of the Union army at Bull Run. That victory did not save the Rebel Confederacy, nor will this the Rebel Democracy.

THE "Democratic" township politicians speculated successfully on the willingness of the "Democratic" voters to come out and vote; and got, we understand, $5 a head for those polled in excess of a small percentage over the vote of 1866. Was there ever so shameless a "bargain and sale?" Yet men who commit such acts, talk of popular corruption as a thing to be regretted! They evidently revel in its filth, and get fat on its vomit.

It is understood that the name of Hon. M. RUSSELL THAYER will be presented to Gov. GEARY for appointment to the vacancy caused by Judge SHARSWOOD's transfer to the Supreme Bench. Gov. GEARY could not do a more graceful, appropriate, or popular thing than to appoint Mr. THAYER, whose qualifications are of the highest, and whose claims are unquestionable.

THE Republicans of New York are organizing actively for the November election. The State Committee are putting in the field an efficient corps of canvassers, and everything indicates hard, steady work. The contest will be sharp, and the New York Republicans may win their highest laurels in this campaign.

INDIANA, like Iowa, avows her steadfast devotion to Republicanism—the October election showing heavy gains.—Nine out of the eleven Congressional districts went Republican, being a gain of one. The aggregate majority will reach 20,000, against 14,000 last year.

THE Lewisburg Chronicle, long one of the best, has become one of the largest, Republican papers in the State. It has grown to thirty-two columns.

THE PRESIDENCY.

Since the recent elections a strong movement has developed itself in favor of Gen. GRANT as the next Republican candidate for the Presidency. The Maryland State Republican Convention led off by declaring for GRANT and Manhood Suffrage. In Philadelphia, GRANT Clubs are being formed under the leadership of EX-GOV. POLLOCK, Col. WM. B. MANN, and other active Republicans. A number of leading papers in various parts of the country, including the Galena (Ills.) Gazette—the home of GRANT—have declared for him and hoisted his name at the head of their columns. Under the influence of the temporary check sustained by the Republican party at the recent elections, the country seems to be turning towards the great soldier, who during the war lead our armies to victory—assured that he who saved the nation in 1864, will preserve it from Rebel rule in 1868.

THE defeat in Ohio is a surprise to both parties. The Republicans claimed a majority of 25,000 on Governor, and the Democrats conceded it. Both parties deemed the Constitutional Amendment on Suffrage doubtful. It is voted down by 50,000 majority, and while the Republicans elect their Governor by some 3,000, the Democrats carry the Legislature.—The canvass was active, indeed brilliant, on both sides, and a large vote was out.—The Democrats skilfully used the money and tax questions against the Republicans, and of course played upon whatever of popular prejudice there is against the proposed Manhood Suffrage. The result will be a land-mark in politics, as it signifies something—which cannot be said of the result in Pennsylvania. In Philadelphia, probably a thousand Republicans voted for Judge SHARSWOOD on personal and professional grounds, and the whole campaign was sluggishly conducted on the part of the Republicans, and under a heavy adverse pressure from "side-issues." Besides, factional and personal resentments paralyzed the party in several of our strongest counties. On the naked merits of the two parties, the majority of the people are Republicans still, as they have been for five years.

Speaking of the late election, BEN. WADE bravely says: "Her recent narrow escape will only have the effect to secure her against future accidents. The Republicans of Ohio were never more radical, more confident of their strength, nor more resolutely determined to carry out their principles to a final triumph than now; and if our election could be held over again to-morrow, warned of our danger, we should carry the State by more than 50,000." Senator SHERMAN says: "Gen. Hayes and the whole State ticket are elected by 3,000 majority, which we will make 50,000 next fall with ease. We lost the State in 1862 by 6,000 majority, on the Emancipation Proclamation of Abraham Lincoln. The next year we beat Vallandigham by 104,000 on the same issue."

ONE of the favorite complaints of the Western Democracy is the Senatorial representation of the New England States, which they pronounce unjust, and which they promise to cut down when they can.

On the other hand, Mr. ADAMS, "Democratic" candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, commends the doctrine of State Rights, because it has secured and will retain the Senatorial preponderance of New England in Congress!

Verily, "Democratic" dishonesty and impudence are equal to any and every deception and pretension.

THE rebel element in the South take great comfort out of the result in Ohio and Pennsylvania; and are resisting Reconstruction with "might and main."—A few weeks will disclose, with what result. Should the effect be an indefinite postponement of restoration and peace, the Republicans will be in no way responsible.

GEN. GRANT'S POSITION.

At a Republican meeting in Galena, Illinois, on the 5th inst., Congressman E. B. Washburne undertook to define Gen. Grant's position in detail. As Mr. Washburne is an intimate friend of the General's, considerable interest is attached to the statements made, which are, in effect, that Gen. Grant's sympathies are with Congress in its reconstruction measures, and that he had advised an extra session, and had used his influence with Senators to accept the clause in the House bill requiring the assent of the Senate to the removal of district commanders. Favoring the reconstruction acts, every effort of his had been directed to the enforcement of the laws in their letter and spirit, and he had accepted the position of Secretary of War from a stern sense of duty to the country, and to prevent its being filled by a Johnson man. Mr. W. also stated that his acceptance of the position was with the knowledge and consent of Mr. Stanton, after a full consultation and understanding between them. In regard to the General being a candidate for the Presidency, Mr. W. stated that he had no right to speak.

JAY COOKE, Esq., has written a letter in defence of national banking system, explaining its origin and merits, and urging its perpetuation.

LEG BROKEN.—Miss DIEHL, granddaughter of JACOB MELHORN, Esq., (of Mountpleasant township,) and living with him, broke her leg, one day last week, by being run against and thrown down by a large and heavy dog.

MAD CATTLE.—We have been informed that two cows, one belonging to PETER DIEHL and the other to E. HAVERSTOCK, of New Oxford, went mad on Sunday last. A dog, belonging to CHARLES DIEHL, went mad a short time ago, and it is supposed bit the cows.

☞ The Maryland Synod of the Lutheran Church met in Washington, D. C., last week. Among the lay delegates elected to the next General Synod of the Lutheran Church, we notice the name of ADAM C. MUSSELMAN, Esq., of Fairfield. The Synod, in a body, called on Gen. GRANT. Rev. Dr. MORRIS, of Baltimore, made a neat and pertinent address.

KILLED.—On Thursday last, a son of JEREMIAH SLAYBAUGH, residing near Round Hill, in this county, aged about nine years, was killed while assisting his father to haul logs. They were in the act of raising a log to put it on the wagon, the lad propping the log, when the chain suddenly gave way, precipitating the log on the boy and killing him almost instantly.

SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION.—A Sabbath School Convention will be held in Gettysburg, the last week in November, —the exercises beginning on Monday evening, Nov. 25, and continuing Tuesday and Wednesday, 26 and 27. Rev. ALFRED TAYLOR, Rev. Dr. WILLETS, Ex-Gov. POLLOCK, and other noted friends of the Sabbath School cause, will be present. Full particulars next week.

NARROW ESCAPE.—On Saturday, the 12th inst., GEORGE KUGLER, aged about 12 years, son of SAMUEL KUGLER, of Liberty township, while handling a loaded pistol, came near losing his life. The pistol discharged, the load passing along his face, several of the shot passing across the bridge of his nose and lodging in the lid of his right eye. Dr. A. O. SCOTT was called in, and removed the shot. The boy may lose his eye.

☞ We are indebted to Messrs. FOWLER & WELLS, N. York, for a neatly printed pamphlet entitled "The Gospel among the Animals, or Christ with the Cattle," being a sermon recently delivered by Rev. Dr. OSGOOD, inveighing strongly against the want of kindness in dealing with domestic animals. The same publishers send us a copy of "Pope's Essay on Man," with illustrations and notes by S. R. WELLS, from a Phrenalogical point.

ACCIDENT.—On the 9th inst., CLARA L., aged about 12 years, youngest daughter of JACOB EPPLEMAN, Esq., of Butler township, met with a terrible accident. She was at a neighbor's, Mr. JACOB Y. BUSHEY's, where a sorghum mill was in operation. Taking up a few stalks of sorghum, she started them through the mill, in a playful way, but her hand (the right) was unfortunately drawn in among the cogs, and shockingly crushed, from the points of the fingers to the wrist.

SAMUEL WIEST has sold his house and 12 acres of land near New Oxford, to Mr. GINTER, for $3,320.

HENRY B. WEANER has sold his farm in Butler township, 84 acres, for $2,725 to JACOB B. TROSTLE.

DISCHARGED.—Last week we mentioned that JOHN BAER, of Baltimore county, had been arrested on charge of stealing a horse from Mr. FICKES, of Shippensburg, six years ago, which he sold to J. F. KOERBLE, of this county. We notice by the Baltimore papers that on the 14th, a writ of habeas corpus was issued in the case by Judge SCOTT, and the prisoner discharged, it not appearing to the Court that any measures had been taken to procure a requisition from the Governor of Pennsylvania.

ECCLESIASTICAL.—The General Synod of the German Reformed Church is in session at Baltimore, Md. The attendance is large, and the deliberations of the Synod attract much interest, as liturgical and other important questions are to be considered and determined. We notice that on Saturday a committee was appointed to inquire into the character of the Meyerstown Convention, and of the documents presented to the body by said Convention; to ascertain whether it would be proper to receive the aforesaid documents.

ANTI-LITURGICAL.—A Convention of 225 delegates, upwards of 40 of them Ministers, of the German Reformed Church, met at Myerstown, Lebanon county, on the 24th ult., Rev. D. ZIEGLER, of York, presiding. The object of the Convention was to consult in regard to the liturgical movement agitating the German Reformed Church, and to protest at meeting of the Synod in Baltimore against the introduction of the new Liturgy, which, they say, embraces "a doctrine and form of worship entirely foreign to the customs of the Church and the doctrines contained in the Heidelberg Catechism."

☞ Last week we briefly noticed the consecration of the new Lutheran Church, at Littlestown, under the pastoral care of Rev. S. HENBY. A correspondent sends us some additional facts. The building is 85 by 48 feet, with a spire 150 feet high, and has 98 pews—the seating accommodations being about 700. The church was carpeted and furnished by the ladies of the congregation at a cost of about $450. The services were very impressive—an admirably trained choir contributing much to the interest of the occasion. The congregation that has built this handsome and costly edifice certainly deserves much credit.

PRESBYTERIAL.—At the recent meeting of Carlisle Presbytery at Emmittsburg, Revs. JOSEPH A. MURRAY and ISAAC M. PATTERSON, and ruling Elder R. G. MCCREARY were appointed a committee to confer with the churches of Lower Marsh Creek, Great Conewago, Petersburg, and Monaghan (all now vacant), in regard to a re-arrangement of the Pastoral charges composed of said congregations.

The following supplies were appointed for Petersburg Church: Rev. JOSEPH A. MURRAY, third Sabbath in November; Rev. B. M. KERR, third Sabbath in January; Rev. S. R. SAYRS, third Sabbath in March.—Greencastle was chosen as the place for the next stated meeting.

IMPROVEMENTS.—The following buildings heretofore noticed as in process of erection in this place, have recently been completed, viz: By HENRY OVERDEER, a two-story brick dwelling, with attic, on Baltimore st.; Dr. T. T. TATE, a two-story frame dwelling, finished in cottage style, on Chambersburg st.; N. WEAVER, a double two-story frame dwelling, with store room, on same street; GEORGE STALLSMITH, a double two-story frame dwelling, on York street; JAMES PIERCE, a two-story frame dwelling, on Breckinridge street; JAMES WILSON, a frame shop, on West Middle st.; WM. E. BITTLE, a two-story frame backbuilding, on York street; A. R. FEISTEL, a two-story frame dwelling, on Breckinridge street.

Mr. JOHN GRUEL has commenced the erection of a three-story brick front Dwelling, next to "Eagle" Hotel, on Chambersburg street, with Store-room—to cost about $4,000. It is 30 feet front by 33 feet 2 inches deep.

Judge ZIEGLER has commenced the erection of a two-story frame Dwelling on East Middle street, adjoining Methodist church.

JOHN HOPKINS is converting his one-story frame Dwelling on Washington street, into a two-story.

JUBILEE.—Both the Lutheran congregations in this place are making arrangements to observe the ecclesiastical year beginning with the 31st of October, as a year of Jubilee, in commemoration of the Reformation inaugurated in 1517 by Luther and the Reformers. Special exercises will be held on Thursday the 31st inst., and be continued at stated intervals during the year. A meeting of the Pastors and members of the two congregations was held on Monday evening in Christ Church, when it was determined to have the morning services on the 31st in St. James' Church, on York street—a joint meeting of the Sabbath Schools in the afternoon in the same church—and the evening exercises in Christ Church, on Chambersburg street. It was also determined to invite other religious denominations to unite in these exercises as commemorative of the great epoch in history which gave to the world an open Bible.

ADVERTISING.—Those who advertise the least complain most of dull business.—The fact is those who advertise catch all the transient business, in addition to that of their regular customers. Those who prosper most in business expend the most in advertising —everybody knows what they have to sell —everybody knows the exact locality of their place of business—and everybody knows they are men of enterprise and deserving of public patronage. Those who desire a good share of business must advertise—there is no other means of obtaining it. Advertisers in the "STAR & SENTINEL" have the advantage of communicating every week with at least 10,000 readers. Those who do not care to increase business, or create new custom—or who are willing to run the risk of losing what they have in competition with more energetic business men—can't of course see the benefit of advertising.

ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that on the 8th inst., Mr. DAVID HEAGY, of this place, while driving a heavily loaded wagon down Bream's hill, on the road leading to Butt's School-house, met with a serious accident. His foot caught in a root, throwing him under the wheel, which passed on his breast, breaking three ribs. Fortunately, the team stopped instantly, or the wheel would have passed over and necessarily crushed his head. In this condition, with the wheel on his breast, a son of FRANCIS BREAM found him, and carefully backing the team, released Mr. HEAGY, who was brought to town, and under the care of Dr. O'NEAL is doing very well.

☞ None but perfectly correct machines are allowed to be sent from the manufactory of Fairbanks' Standard Scales. This principle scrupulously observed has given these instruments the world-wide celebrity, and enabled them to triumph over all others in amount of sales and at the Great Paris Exposition, where they received the highest premiums. A NOBLE RESPONSE.—Too much praise cannot be given to the noble response with which the Washington Library Company of Philadelphia are meeting in their patriotic endeavors to raise the required funds for the endowment of the Riverside Institute, a home for the gratuitous education of soldiers' and sailors' orphans. The plan adopted by the company has been subject to careful deliberation, and has received the endorsement of eminent legal authority. The trustees selected to disburse the money thus raised are well-known citizens of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and their names should be a sufficient guarantee to those who would aid in rearing one of the noblest charities that ever thrust itself before the people. Every subscriber to the stock, which costs but one dollar per share, not only receives a fine steel-plate engraving, worth at retail fifty per cent more than what is paid for the stock, but is also guaranteed some present in the great distribution of the $300,000 worth of presents which are to be awarded to the stockholders. The three largest presents are worth $70,000. Each shareholder has an equal chance to obtain one of the largest presents. Every one will obtain some present and a beautiful engraving. A PAYING INVESTMENT.—There are but few ways in which a small outlay of money will bring as sure and satisfactory returns as in the annual subscription to a well conducted, unobjectionable family paper. One of the cheapest, most interesting and valuable weekly journals in this country has been published for nearly nine years in the city of Philadelphia. While its subscription price is so low as to be no obstacle in the way of its introduction, very liberal terms are made with any one who will engage in the work of obtaining new subscribers. A sample copy of the paper, with a prospectus for 1868, and full information in regard to terms of introduction, also a Descriptive List of choice books for presents, will be sent free on application. Address J. C. Garrigues & Co., 148 South Fourth Street, Philadelphia. It

ANCIENT FINE ARTS.—Respecting the relics of porcelain ware found in the late exhumations at Herculaneum, which have been forwarded to the Society of Antiquities in London, whereof your correspondent says the bottle resembling Drake's Plantation Bitters was undoubtedly placed among the ruins by the agent of Dr. Drake, we desire to state he is incorrect in every respect. If a bottle was found there bearing our lettering, the language of the Ancient Romans was different from the accepted literature of that day.—Our agent has other business than this in Europe, and has not been in Italy at all. No doubt Americans carry Plantation Bitters to Rome; but trying to impose upon a society of Antiquarians in this way, seems quite useless, and we do not appreciate the joke. It is unnecessary for us to spend money in Europe while we are unable to supply the demad for these celebrated Bitters here.

Respectfully,
P. H. DRAKE & CO.

A LIBRARY OF UNIVERSAL INFORMATION.

THE NEW

AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA:

A POPULAR DICTIONARY OF GENERAL KNOWLEDGE.

EDITED BY

GEORGE RIPLEY AND CHARLES A. DANA,

AIDED BY A NUMEROUS SELECT CORPS OF WRITERS, IN ALL BRANCHES OF SCIENCE, ART, AND LITERATURE.

In 16 large volumes, 8vo.

750 double-column pages in each volume.

THE leading claims to public consideration which the NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA possesses may be thus briefly stated:

"1. It surpasses all other works in the fulness and ability of the articles relating to the United States.

"2. No other work contains so many reliable biographies of the leading men of this and other nations. In this respect it is far superior even to the celebrated work Encyclopædia Britannica.

"3. The best minds in this country have been employed in enriching its pages with the latest data, and the most recent discoveries in every branch of manufactures, mechanics, and general science.

"4. It is a library in itself, where every topic is treated, and where information can be gleaned which will enable a student, like a sponge, to absorb, to consult other authorities, thus affording him an invaluable key to knowledge.

"5. It is neatly printed, with readable type, on good paper, and contains a most copious index.

"6. It is the only work which gives any thing approaching correct descriptions of cities and towns of America, or embraces reliable statistics showing the wonderful growth of all sections."

Every one that reads, every one that mingles in society, is constantly meeting with allusions to subjects on which he needs and desires further information in conversation, in trade, in professional life, on the farm, in the family, practical questions are continually arising, which no man, well read or not, can always satisfactorily answer. If facilities for reference are at hand, they are consulted, and not only is the error corrected, and the stock of knowledge increased, but perhaps information is gained and ideas are suggested that will directly contribute to the substantial success of the party concerned.

A Cyclopædia is preeminently the work for our country and generation. This is the age of steam. No one has time to grope among different works on one topic for every little fact required, without the certainty of finding it at last. With a Cyclopædia, embracing every conceivable subject, and in which the topics alphabetically arranged, not a moment is lost. The matter in question is found at once, digested, con l ned, stripped of all that is foreign and unnecessary, and verified by a comparison of the best authorities. Moreover, while only men of fortune can collect a library complete in all the departments of knowledge, a Cyclopædia brings it within the reach of all—the clerk, the mechanic, the professional man, the farmer, the merchant, and in a country like ours, where the humblest may be called to responsible positions requiring intelligence and general information, the value of such a work cannot be over-estimated.

"We can confidently and conscientiously recommend the 'Annual Cyclopedia' to all who would have an accurate and readable history of contemporary events close at hand and as a safe work of reference."—Evening Transcript.
